Glasgow 2024 Publishes Final Progress Report

Glasgow 2024 has today published the last of six electronic Progress Reports which have been produced during the two-year period leading up to the convention. Progress Report 5 (the first of the six was numbered as Progress Report 0) can be downloaded in PDF format from the Glasgow 2024 website at <https://glasgow2024.org/for-members/publications/>.

The cover for Progress Report 5 (PR5), is by Glasgow 2024 Publications Division Head and Hugo Award Finalist, Sara Felix.

PR5 includes news from all areas including:

- A final update from Convention Chair Esther MacCallum-Stewart
- A list of our 6,000+ registered members and ticket holders
- Membership statistics and demographics, with 33 countries represented from around the globe

- Practical information to help attendees arrive in and enjoy their time at the convention, from site maps to badge collection arrangements and discounted local travel passes
- Full details and timings for our Special Events – including the Hugo Award Ceremony, Masquerade, Opera, Orchestra, theatrical performances, concerts, and dances
- Updates on Volunteering, Accessibility and Childcare Services, as well as our approach to Sustainability
- Our updated Code of Conduct, which all members and ticket holders are expected to abide by when attending the convention in person or online.
