More Bag Check

The queue for the Hugos will be outside the Armadillo and it may get cold so wrap up warm.

Leave your bag behind if you can to avoid the bag check.

Do not try to make jokes with the bag checkers. Really. We already had one person banned from the SEC over this and we do not need more.

Perfectly normal fans after a day at Worldcon

Listen Up!

The SEC is required by law to be very strict about room capacity and crowds that may impair everyone's ability to exit in case of an emergency.

Meeting rooms and the exhibition halls will have SEC stewards at the entrances. They will be in a uniform, with a white shirt and blue and red striped tie, with or without a blue jacket or cardigan.

Listen Up! (2)

Please keep in mind the following:

- Standing in the back of a meeting room is not allowed unless a steward has given permission.
- If an event is labelled as being for those 18 or over, the steward may request proof of age if there is any question. Even if accompanied by a parent, those under 18 will not be admitted.
- Do not linger in the doorway to see if a panel is interesting. Please move into the room and find a seat. The steward at the door will remind you to please take a seat.
- If the steward says the room is full, please find another event to attend.
- If a steward asks you to move along, please do so promptly, as you may be creating a choke point in the traffic flow.

Listen Up! (short version)

Don't overcrowd the rooms.

Please cooperate with the SEC stewards if they ask you to move.

Be sensible.

Get there as early as you can! Even panellists are being turned away.

Programme Change

Monday 11:30 String Theory Made Easy has been moved to online only.

Masquerade

There were 29 entries this year, with 18 novices (more than we've had for quite a while).

Performances should be available on catchup.

Drinks

A reminder that the cheapest beer at the convention is probably from the Fan and Fishlifter (Argyll Suite).

A selection of excellent Kelburn Brewing Co. beers at £6 a pint (but, alas, not including Dark Moor which ran out on the first day).

Scotland Science Exhibitors

Site Selection

A hard-fought victory for L.A. in 2026 who won the right to hold the 84th World Science Fiction Convention with a mere 452 out of 531 votes cast.

Full voting breakdown available in the Business Meeting minutes.

See <https://www.lacon.org> for details.

Table Talk with Charles Stross

In Conclusion

The Committed Traveller award goes to one intrepid member who has finally made it to Glasgow on Sunday morning after multiple route cancellations and thirty hours of travelling.
